

Leakage-safe and calibration-aware model-threshold decision workflow

Selection uses validation/calibration data only; held-out test data are used once for final reporting.

Decision layer around existing detectors; no test-set threshold selection and no new anomaly score.